

Revised Replit Build Spec: Home Builder Funnel (The Reverse Risk Offer)

Overview of the Shift

The core offer is a “Reverse Risk” structure. The prospect books a free demo call, we build the demo for free, and they only pay the $99 build fee if they approve the demo and want the full site built. Once the site is live, their monthly subscription starts, backed by a 30-day money-back guarantee.

This document contains the exact copy and structural changes required to communicate this offer clearly.

1. The Sticky Urgency Banner (Top of Page)

Keep this section, but update the copy to clarify the risk reversal.

Copy: “May Only: Get a Free Custom Homepage Demo. Love it? Pay just $99 for the full build. Offer Ends May 31.”

2. The Hero Section

The headline needs to aggressively state the risk-free nature of the offer.

Pre-headline: “ATTENTION CUSTOM HOME BUILDERS”

H1 Headline: “We Will Build You a Custom Homepage Demo for Free. If You Love It, We’ll Build the Entire Site for Just $99.”

Sub-headline: “Stop losing high-end bids to competitors with better websites. Book a 15-minute call, and we will design a custom homepage concept for your business—

100% free, before you spend a dollar. If you want to move forward, the full build is just 99(*normally*1,499) for the month of May.”

CTA Button: “Book My Free Custom Demo”

Micro-copy under CTA: “15-minute call · Free custom demo · 30-day money-back guarantee.”

3. The Problem Section

The copy here needs to be changed from third-person (“They/Their”) to second-person (“You/Your”).

Section Headline: “Why Your Current Website Is Costing You Jobs”

Column 1: Icon: Desktop Monitor Headline: It Looks Like 2012 Copy: “You build million-dollar homes, but your website makes you look like a budget contractor. High-end clients judge your quality by your digital presence.”

Column 2: Icon: Downward Chart Headline: It Doesn’t Convert Copy: “Traffic doesn’t matter if visitors leave without contacting you. Your site is a digital brochure, not a lead-generation machine.”

Column 3: Icon: Search/Magnifying Glass Headline: It’s Invisible on Google Copy: “When someone searches for ‘custom home builders near me,’ your competitors show up first. You are relying entirely on referrals.”

4. The Process Section (Crucial Update)

This section must explicitly spell out the timeline of when money changes hands.

Section Headline: “OUR PROCESS: Zero Risk. Zero Upfront Cost.”

Sub-headline: “We don’t ask for a credit card until you’ve seen our work and approved the direction.”

Step 1: The 15-Minute Discovery Call (Free) “A quick call to review your current site, your target buyers, and what your new site needs to win more bids.”

Step 2: The Custom Homepage Demo (Free) “We turn what we heard into a real, custom demo of your new homepage. No payment required to see it.”

Step 3: Approve & Pay the $99 Build Fee “If you love the demo, you pay just 99(*our Mayspecial, normally*1,499). We then kick off the full 7-10 day build.”

Step 4: Review & Launch “We walk you through the finished site, make any final adjustments, and launch it live on your domain.”

Step 5: The 30-Day Guarantee Begins “Your monthly subscription begins. If you aren’t thrilled with the performance within the first 30 days, we’ll refund your money.”

5. The Pricing Section Update

The pricing cards are currently good, but we need to add the guarantee badge below them.

Add a new row immediately below the pricing cards:

Headline: “Backed by Our 30-Day ‘Site-Live’ Guarantee” Copy: “We take all the risk. You pay nothing to see the demo. You pay just $99 to build the site. And if you aren’t completely satisfied within 30 days of your site going live, we will refund your money and part as friends.”

6. The Booking Section

As discussed in the previous audit, replace the custom form with a Calendly embed to remove friction.

Headline: “Claim Your Free Custom Homepage Demo” Sub-headline: “Pick a time below for a brief 15-minute discovery call. We’ll learn about your business and start designing your free custom homepage concept.”
